About us

Küchen- und Wohnstudio Schwaiger

Tradition Meets Modernity

Founded in 1986 by Alfred Schwaiger, our kitchen and living studio has become a cornerstone of exceptional design in the alpine region. In 2024, Luca Schwaiger took over the management, continuing the company's values with fresh ideas and the same passion

Our success is built on true teamwork, craftsmanship perfection, and a deep understanding of our customers' desires.

Whether it's custom-made kitchens, cozy living spaces, innovative overall concepts, or the careful renovation of existing rooms – we strive to bring out the best in every space.

When it comes to renovations, our focus is on preserving the character of a room while enhancing it with modern accents, optimal functionality, and the highest quality

Experience living quality that harmoniously combines nature, style, and comfort. Whether new construction or renovation – this is Schwaiger: your reliable partner for exceptional living.

Chalet Mühlbach

Chalet Mühlbach

Luxus meets alpine Elegance

For Chalet Mühlbach, we have created a luxurious living concept that seamlessly combines alpine tradition with modern design. High-quality materials such as wood and stone, custom-made furniture, and carefully curated details create an atmosphere that harmoniously blends warmth and style.

This exclusive chalet reflects our passion for bringing exceptional living dreams to life in the heart of the breathtaking Alpine landscape.

Penthouse in Dresden

In Dresden, we had the opportunity to create an extraordinary living concept that blends rustic charm with modern elements. The focus was on the harmonious combination of leather and wood, giving the space a warm and inviting atmosphere. Natural materials, handcrafted details, and clean lines define the design. Carefully selected furniture and accessories create a unique mix of elegance and authenticity, resulting in a look that is both timeless and full of character. This project demonstrates how thoughtful material selection and individual design can give any space a distinctive touch – rustic, charming, and full of personality.

"A home achieves true harmony when its elements interact, complement one another, and form a balanced whole."
